Universalisation of ICDS and Anganwadis

1484. SHRI K.E. ISMAIL: Will the Minister of WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) what are the steps taken for the universalisation of Integrated Child Development Scheme and anganwadis;

(b) whether any proposal is now under consideration for the quality improvement of the work of anganwadis and for ensuring better infrastructure facilities;

(c) whether there is any proposal under consideration for providing a minimum training to the workers and helpers of anganwadis and to improve their status and remuneration; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI RENUKA CHOWDHURY): (a) In pursuance of the commitment of the National Common Minimum Programme (NCMP) of the Government, to provide a functional Anganwadi Centre in every settlement/habitation, the ICDS Scheme has been expanded twice in the last two years. The first expansion was in the year 2005-06 when 466 ICDS Projects and 1.88 lakh Anganwadi Centres were sanctioned. In 2nd expansion approved in the current year, for 173 additional Projects and 107274 additional Anganwadi Centres and 25961 Mini-Anganwadis have been sanctioned. Moreover, many Projects/AWCs sanctioned in the IX Plan have also been operationalized in the last two years. As a result, number of beneficiaries of supplementary nutrition & pre-school education has gone up from 415.08 lakh and 204.38 lakh as on 31.3.2004 to 654.65 lakh & 271.28 lakh respectively as on 30.09.2006.

(b) Yes, Sir.

(c) and (d) To develop the skills and update the knowledge of the Anganwadi Workers (AWWs) & Helpers (AWHs), modules both for Job & Refresher Training are already in place under the ICDS Scheme. At present Anganwadi workers are given job training for 26 days, Refresher training for 5 days and Induction training for 6 days. Similarly Anganwadi Helpers are given Refresher training for 4 days and orientation training for 6 days.

A Review Committee set up to examine the current levels of honorarium & other related issues of AWWs and AWHs has submitted its report recently which is under consideration of the Government.
